NEW SERIES—VOLUME NO. 44

THE NEXT QUESTION, PLEASE

By Dr. C. C. Warren
President of the Southern Baptist Convention

It seems that when a man is elected president of the Southern Baptist Convention he is called upon to give his opinion about everything from sourkraut to atomic energy. Thus far I have been able to maintain a fair degree of silence, but one question is now being raised upon which I am led to venture an opinion, one man's opinion, of course, since from time immemorial no man would dare speak for Baptists unless he is specifically authorized to do so.

A considerable number of the brethren are asking "What is the meaning of these strange statements from certain editors and Christian leaders?" for example, "The drawing together of the church of Christ in the ecumenical movement", "The Baptist World Alliance President nor his church is typically Southern Baptists", "Is the Baptist World Alliance going to be used as a pressure group to bring the Southern Baptist Convention into the World Council of Churches."

My feeling is that the question raised in the foregoing statements has been answered time and again by Southern Baptists. They answered it fifteen years ago at the Baltimore Convention when an invitation to membership into World Council of Churches was declined on the ground that "The churches cherish their independence and would disapprove of any attempted exercise of ecclesiastical authority over

Home Board Elects C. G. Cole President

GLORIETA, N. M. — (BN) — C. G. Cole, Atlanta, Georgia, layman and businessman, was elected President of the 49 member board of the Home Mission Board in its semi-annual meeting at Glorieta Baptist Assembly.

Cole has been a member of the Board four and a half years. Rev. L. E. Smith, pastor of the

Thirty Make Perfect Score At Training Union Assembly

A total of 30 decisions were recorded as a result of a most successful Baptist Training Union Assembly conducted last week at Camp Garaywa, it has been announced by Kermit King, state Training Union secretary who directed the program.

These decisions included commitments to vocational Christian service, dedications of life and one profession of faith.

Registration for this full week totaled 270 with several hundred visitors attending.

State finals were conducted in the Primary Story Time, Adult Mission Story Feature and Junior Memory work drill. In the Junior event 140 district winners participated and 115 of these were state winners.

To be a state winner the participant must not make more than three mistakes. The memory passages included all memory verses in the quarterlies for October, 1954, through August, 1955.

Of the 115 state winners 35 made perfect grades. They are:

Ed Deas of Purvis and Betsy Roebuck of Aberdeen were elected King and Queen of the assembly after spirited balloting. The prince elected was Tommy Ross of Jackson with the princess selected being Becky Grantham of Hattiesburg.

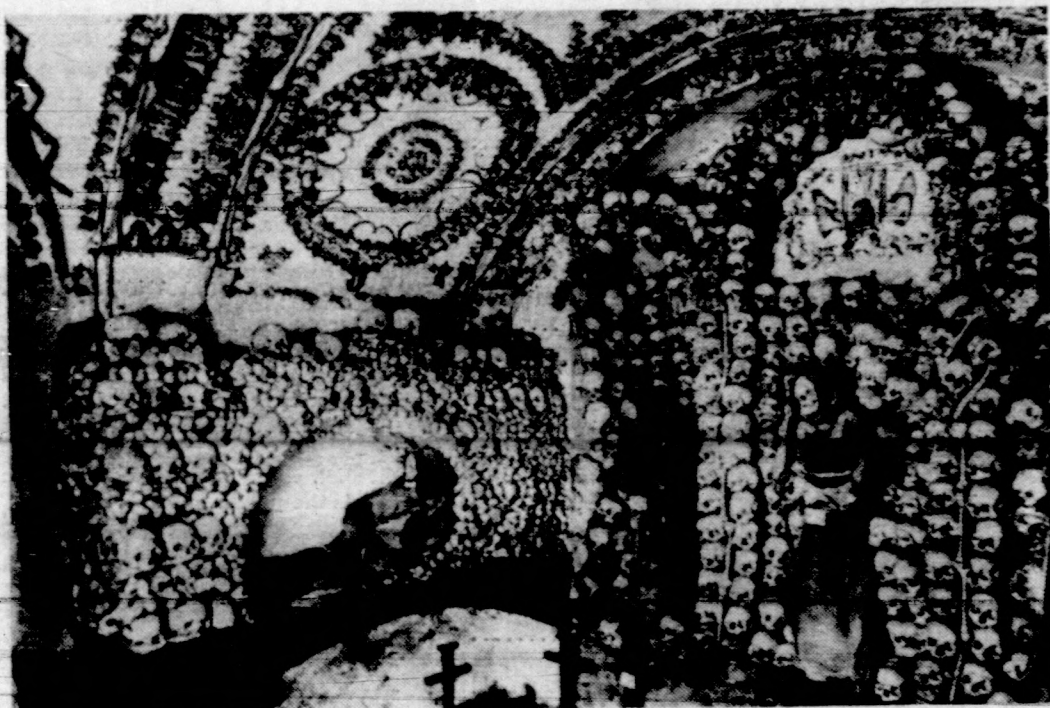

Tillman Rodabough of Aberdeen was elected as Duke and Sandra Lovette of Meridian was chosen as Duchess.

In the annual Faculty-All Star softball game Friday afternoon the faculty beat the opponents 8-7 to even the series at 2-2.

Dr. Chester L. Quarles, state executive secretary - treasurer, was the speaker at the opening "travel" banquet on Monday night.

The morning watch speaker was Dr. Clyde Martin, pastor First Church, Senatobia. Song leader was Paul Adams, Minister.

Shown above is a scene from one of the rooms in the church of the Cemeteries in Rome. People are buried in the basement of the church. After ten years the bones are dug up and used to decorate the church. All of the decorations shown in this picture are human bones. The decorating is done by the monks who are there for that purpose.

Mississippi Has New Editing Duties

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — (BP) — Mrs. France (Bill) Davis, Baptist Press editorial assistant here since March, 1953, has a new editorial assignment effective Sept. 1.

Albert McClellan, director of publications for the Executive Committee, announced Mrs. Davis will be editor of the Baptist Bulletin Service and editor's assistant on the Executive Committee magazine, Baptist Program.

She succeeds Mrs. Doris Wiggins Greer, who resigned. Mrs. Greer joined the Executive Committee in April, 1953, after serving as assistant to the editor of the Baptist Record, weekly newspaper in Jackson, Miss.

Mrs. Davis will also assist in the S.B.C. Mat Service and in production of Executive Committee tracts on stewardship and tithing. Mrs. Davis is from Jackson.

(Editor's Note: Mrs. Davis is a daughter-in-law of Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Davis of Flora.)

Touring Preachers Say Russian Baptists Free

MOSCOW — (BP) — The four United States Baptist ministers touring Russia said they have found Baptists in Russia are eager to hear the word of God preached.

"Of course they do not have religious freedom the way we know it, but they certainly have full freedom of worship," remarked Theodore F. Adams, pastor of First Baptist Church, Richmond, Va.

Adams is president of the Baptist World Alliance and one of the four ministers winding up a two-week tour of Russian Baptist churches after attending the Baptist World Congress in London, England.

The ministers preached almost nightly as they visited

Baptist churches in numbers of Russian cities. Even after a service lasting as long as three hours, they said their hearers were anxious to have more Bible preaching.

They were impressed by the "surprising number of young men and women in the churches." The sincerity of the Russian Baptists also impressed them.

The half-million Baptists in the Soviet also liked such favorites with American Baptists as hymns entitled "Work for the Night is Coming" and "God be with You Till We Meet Again."

Adams was due back in the United States Aug. 20.

Bethel Is Popular Name For Churches In North Carolina

THOMASVILLE, N. C. — (BP) — "Bethel" is a mighty popular name among Baptist people in North Carolina.

It's so popular that it heads all other names—not counting "First"—used by Baptist churches in the state, according to Charity and Children, publication of the state Baptist children's home here.

The paper found "Bethel" was used 33 times. Next most popular, in order, are "Oak Grove," 30 times; "Antioch" and "Calvary," each 25 times; and "Pleasant Grove" and "Mount Zion," each 21.

The Next Question ...

them". It was answered again at the 1947 meeting of the Baptist World Alliance in Copenhagen when a proposal that the Baptist World Alliance link itself with the World Council of Churches was ruled out of order on the grounds that "The Alliance is neither a legislative nor an administrative body and that it cannot act for its constituent bodies apart from the explicit provisions of its constitution".

Now let us pass on to THE NEXT QUESTION. There are areas in which we may and do gladly work with our brethren of other Baptist bodies and of other denominations. Seeking to express the desire of Southern Baptists, I proposed to the American Baptists in their recent annual meeting at Atlantic City, that we work together in formulating a great five-year nationwide program as a part of and culminating with the celebration of the sesqui-centennial of the Triennial Convention. This suggestion met with a most cordial and hearty response. Dr. Gezork said in his recent message at the Baptist World Alliance, "The Baptist Church that does not believe in and practice Evangelism condemns itself to death." Can Southern Baptists? Can American Baptists? Can other Baptist bodies in the United States join in a great program of worthy goals to win America for Christ? Why not go on and answer this question in a way that will be pleasing to our Lord and for the extension of His Kingdom?

ter of Music, Fifteenth Avenue Church, Meridian.

The principal inspirational speaker was Dr. Dale Cowling, pastor Second Church, Little Rock, Arkansas while Dr. J. M. Price, head of School of Religious Education, Southwestern Seminary, was one of the conference leaders.

Julius Thompson of Morton was the speaker for the "devotions under the stars" each evening.

Assisting in conducting the assembly was the staff of the State Training Union Department. They are: Kermit King, state director; J. G. Pierce, Miss Louise Hill and Miss Neta Stewart, associates; Miss Sammie Campbell office secretary.

Among recent visitors in the Baptist Building were: Mrs. Ruel Traylor, Utica; Mrs. Eugene Strong, Utica; O. U. Rushing, Jackson; Rev. R. L. Lambright, New Orleans, Seminary; Rev. James E. Drane, Mathiston.

Port Gibson Church Has New Pastor

Rev. Paul Kirke

Rev. Paul Kirke assumed his duties as pastor of Port Gibson Church on August 14. He will occupy an apartment while a parsonage is being built. Mr. Kirke has pastored churches in Clark, Lauderdale, Newton, and Jackson counties and De Ridder, La. He recently resigned First Church, Gautier after serving his second pastorate there.

The family found the pantry well filled and were entertained by the church at a tea on Sunday afternoon when the public welcomed them. Mrs. O. D. Youree, W. M. U. President and J. Mack Jones, deacon, received with the family.

—BR—

Not many, but a few people are wasting time and postage in writing anonymous letters to the Baptist Record. Recently we received two newspaper clippings from Jackson, an unsigned letter from Amory, etc. For the benefit of all who are afraid to sign their names to communications may we make the statement that the Baptist Record does not give any consideration to any article that is unsigned. People whose motives are right should be willing to stand behind what they write or send. Those that are afraid to sign their names deserve and will get no consideration.

Home Board ...

Park Avenue Baptist Church in Atlanta, was elected to succeed Cole as Vice President.

Dr. Courts Redford, Executive Secretary-Treasurer, Home Mission Board, reported an increase of 89 missionaries since the beginning of 1955. He reported that there are now 11,000 enrolled in the Board's Correspondence Bible Course.

The Executive Secretary noted a $44,000 increase in receipts during the first six months of the year. Gifts received through the 1955 Annie Armstrong Offering for Home Missions have reached $1,209,596.33, or an increase of $60,000 over the same period last year.

Baptist Movie Theme May Be On 'Freedom'

By the Baptist Press

The proposed new Baptist film may be on the subject of religious freedom rather than on the life of some particular, outstanding Baptist personality.

Groups of Baptists from four national organizations held an unofficial conference in London, England, recently and agreed generally the freedom idea is the most desirable.

Those at the conference also discussed ways in which they could co-operate in producing the film, according to Louie D. Newton, Atlanta, Ga., minister who is chairman of the Southern Baptist film committee.

The proposed motion picture would be separate and distinct from Baptist films already in process.

Southern Baptists on the film committee solicited suggestions from other Baptist organizations and sponsored the London conference for this purpose.

Newton reported the Southern Baptist film committee is waiting now for the three other Baptist bodies to indicate future steps they want to take in producing the film.

Seek Capable Writers

Newton said he has been seeking people capable of writing the script for the motion picture, as those at the London conference requested him to do.

The conference believed that if the theme were built around religious liberty, the actions of many well-known Baptist figures could be depicted on film. Represented at the conference were the American Baptist Convention, Canadian Baptists, Baptist Union of Britain and Ireland, and Southern Baptists.

Before the conference in London, the foremost idea had been to build the picture around a major Baptist personality.

—BR—

The Bulletin of the Southside Church, Jackson, quotes a pastor as saying, after a member had refused to accept a place of service in the church with the excuse that "I don't want to be tied down" as follows: "I don't want to be tied down" means, "Let someone else do it. I don't care whether it is done or not." It means, "Let the fires of sin burn, I'm going to fiddle." It means, "There are other members who do not have the standing in the community that I do, let them do it." Carried to its logical conclusion, it will mean that there will be no Sunday School teachers, no functioning deacons, no choir, no Training Union, no ushers, no congregation, no church, simply because "I don't want to be tied down."

The Wise Squirrels

By JULIA W. WOLFE

Under a great big tree there lived a family of squirrels. All through the lovely summer days they climbed the trees, and ran gayly along the branches, and raced up and down.

One day, when the little family was running off through the fields, two children came through the woods, and saw a curious-looking hole under a tree. Jamie poked a stick into the hole, and found that it contained quantities of nuts. It was the very store that the squirrels had all worked hard to gather for their food during the coming winter.

Without one thought of harming the squirrels, Jamie and Janie took every nut from that hole. Then the squirrels returned, and were surprised, and began running up and down trees and chattered and scolded as fast as they could. But, of course, the children did not understand squirrel chatter, and they kept on putting all the nuts into a little basket, which they carried away to their home. A few of the bigger squirrels followed after them and kept up scolding all the way.

Jamie and Janie handed the basket to their mother when they reached home, and thought she would be pleased with their find; but she did not even smile; she said she was sorry they had done such a thing. "Don't you know, my children, that the squirrels gather these nuts for their winter's food? Don't you know the squirrels have had much work to get all of these nuts together?"

She said, "The nuts must be put back just where they were found or the squirrels will go hungry all winter."

Jamie and Janie wanted to keep the nuts, but after thinking how they would not like to go hungry themselves, they took the nuts back. The squirrels were watching and saw all of their treasures go into the hole in the ground out of sight. And just as soon as Jamie and Janie were out of sight, down from the big tree scrambled the squirrels. After a lot of chattering among themselves, the old squirrels scratched every nut out of that hole, and then they each took a nut and carried them off a long, long way, and buried them under a ledge under a hill.

How hard they worked, and how tired they grew! But they did not stop until every nut was stored away safe in the new storehouse.

DELIVERANCE AND RETURN

Bible Texts: Isaiah 45; Ezra 1

These passages contain the poorest comfort I can imagine for anyone or all of that comdespise what they choose to call "Doctrine." If these misled people would but learn it the Bible, from beginning to end, is full of doctrine. It is God's doctrinal book; for, the word "Doctrine" means nothing more nor less than teaching. The Bible is God's book by means of which He strives to teach people the way of life and to lead them to walk in the path of righteousness. I am very willing to acknowledge that there are people who find no doctrine in the Bible, nor do they find anything else, because, forsooth, they have no finder.

There are people who might read every page in the King's library, without finding one single idea. Lines and pages and volumes of print pass before their eyes but not one solid thought penetrates the depths of the understanding, simply because there are no depths. But the passages which we have for our study in this lesson are full of the grand old doctrines which have put strength into the character of every man, or woman whose life has built any smallest portion of the fabric of the Kingdom of God on earth.

I. THE PERSONALITY OF GOD

"Thus saith the Lord." Now these words declare that someone has spoken and influence does not utter articulate speech. It requires a person to do that and from Genesis to Revelation, our Bible declares multiplied scores of times that the God of the universe is somebody, an intelligent being, an

The very next day Jamie and Janie crept slyly to the old storehouse under the tree; they could not find a single nut. There was nothing except an empty hole. And up in the tree the squirrels were frisking about, loked down from a safe distance and chattered at Jamie and Janie.

EARNED FUN

By Ha Lewis Funderburgh.
Today I did my tasks with care,
Nor shirked a single one,
And when the time for playing came,
I never had such fun!
The games were just the usual kind
That we play any day;
I think they seemed so special for
I'd earned them as my pay

Pleasant Hill Has Revival

Pleasant Hill Church in Lincoln County closed its revival August 12 with 19 additions during the week, 16 of which were professions of faith. Crowds overflowed the auditorium each evening and the morning services were also well-attended.

Rev. J. P. Brewer of the Mt. Pleasant Church was the evangelist and J. T. Taylor of Centerville led the singing. The pastor is Rev. J. P. Kirkland, Jr.

There have been 62 additions since October, 35 on profession of faith, and 12 rededications.

intelligible being, capable of understanding another intelligence, and capable, likewise, of imparting intelligence to other intelligent beings. He is man's friend, man's Creator, Man's Strengthener, man's beneficent King, man's loving, merciful, Heavenly Father.

A person to whom man can go in his extremity and ask for help, to whom man can go in his guilt and plead for cleansing, to whom man can go in his spiritual blindness and plead for light—all this, and with the assurance that there is an Ear to hear, a Heart to sympathize, an Almighty Arm powerful to save. Of this fact of the personality of God, the scripture text of this lesson is full.

II. THE OMNIPRESENCE OF GOD

This big word, "Omnipresence," simply means that God is everywhere all the time. God was in Babylon and in Jerusalem; God was with Cyrus and with the leaders of Jews. God is in your home and in mine. No man can wander so far as to get beyond the endless reach and extent of the presence of God.

This is a thought of the greatest possible comfort and consolation to His people. Storms may blow them off the course, duties may summon them far from home, they may be called upon to descend into the depths of the sea or soar into the upper air higher than the wing of the lordly condor ever fanned it, but no one ever soared so high, dived so deep, or drifted so far as to get beyond the pulsing presence of the Father's love.

This is, of course, an awful thought to the wicked and impenitent. There is no darkness so dense as to hide an evil-doer from the piercing gaze of the Almighty, no fortress of evil so strong as to withstand the entrance of His Spirit, no secret sin or purpose so covered as to hide it from His knowledge.

III. THE OMNISCIENCE OF GOD

This big word simply means that God has all knowledge, that all knowledge is His in possession any time. The Lord stated this truth once in the words "your Heavenly Father knoweth what ye have need of before ye ask Him." And He has this perfect knowledge down to the slightest detail of our lives, down to the secret thoughts and intents of our hearts. He is omniscient in that He has perfect knowledge of the most trivial matters that touch our lives. Known just as clearly to Him are the thoughts of the king upon his throne. He knew Cyrus and named him more than a century before he ever saw the light of day and what was true of God with reference to Cyrus is true also of Him with reference to you.

IV. THE SOVEREIGNTY OF GOD

Now this a doctrine, the doctrine of the rulership of God, the absolute rulership of God. It just means that He shapes the end of life. He is "the destiny that shapes our ends, rough-hew them how we will." He rules the world with truth and grace. And this means that He rules the lives of individuals and nations of individuals. He maketh wars to cease to the ends of the earth and He guides the wandering footsteps of lonely men as they wander the wide world over.

V. GOD'S RULERSHIP THROUGH MAN

Of course He set the stars in their courses, He holds in His hands the leashes of the hunting dogs of Bootes as they range the infinite meadows of space.

He speaks through Jeremiah and Ezra. He works through Cyrus and the men and women who walked the weary mile between the banks of Chebar and the ruined walls of Jerusalem. He works through the men who make the brick, and the men who work with these brick to raise the wall. His the plan of the temple, His the work of the master builder. His the spirit that speaks to your heart to reveal His way to you, His the spirit that girds your loins to the performance of that which He has purposed for you.

In the long gone yesterday of which we have studied in this lesson the golden story we have seen the evidences of God's stately steppings in the lives and affairs of men. He has not changed since that far distant day. He is just as surely regnant in the affairs of men today. We may not see His little footprints in the sands of our time, but that is for no reason other than that we are too near and our eyes are too heavy, or it may be that the dust of things has blinded us to the real.

Elect Brotherhood Officers

Brotherhood officers are church officers. They are never to be named without provision for election and/or approval by the church. The Brotherhood, like the Sunday School and the Training Union, must be completely subservient to the will and authority of the church.

Church control of the Brotherhood through the election of its officers is the only way in which the Brotherhood should be allowed to exist in the church. To have it otherwise would place the church in a position where it could not control the work of the organization, a thing that is inconceivable in Baptist policy.

How best accomplish this relationship? The answer is simple enough. It begins with the normal election procedure of your church.

HOW

The Brotherhood should subordinate its election procedure to that of the church. Whatever the church plan for election of its organizational leadership is automatically the plan to be followed by the Brotherhood.

Brotherhood officers should be chosen as carefully and prayerfully as Sunday school officers and Training Union officers and leaders. Pastor and/or Educational Director should have opportunity to counsel as closely with current Brotherhood leaders as they do with other organizational leadership concerning future leaders.

Two plans are at the present time most widely used by Southern Baptist churches.

CHURCH NOMINATING COMMITTEE. A nominating committee is named by the church each year to bring to the church in business session a list of nominees for all church officers and for all officers and leaders of the organizations within the church. This plan usually finds the nominating committee consulting with leaders of each organization for suggestions as to which persons within the church are best qualified, understand the work of that organization, and are willing and able to give the time necessary to properly fill the offices in the organization. With such information from the officers of the Brotherhood in hand, the nominating committee of the church will be able to make the most appropriate nominations to the church for officers of the Brotherhood. Before presenting any names, the committee should contact each man personally and make certain that he is willing to serve. This plan of electing the officers places the responsibility of both nominating and electing the Brotherhood officers directly in the hands of the church.

Shown above is the Jordan River with Mt. Hermon in the distance. It was somewhere near this place that Jesus was immersed.

If you should feel the urge to do something personally for me, spend more time in praying daily. —Anne Dyer, missionary to Gaza.

2. Agree on a definite hour prayer each day this week. (September 12-19)
3. Be together each day for prayer, if convenient.
4. Communicate with each other daily by telephone if impossible to meet together.

SB Press Director Almost Gets Jailed

Albert McClellan, who had written about Spain's tight restrictions on Baptists while covering the Baptist World Congress for the Baptist Press, almost had occasion for a first-person account on the subject.

A few hours before he was to leave from Madrid, Spain, in New York, he visited the poor settlement in Madrid. While taking a picture of a woman selling water, he was seized from behind by two policemen. The police didn't speak English; McClellan spoke no Spanish. His United States passport didn't impress them. McClellan had visions of the plane flying with him behind in a Spanish jail, but after a while the police talked away angrily.

What did the Baptist Press director do? "Why I grabbed the first taxi and left there!" he exclaimed.

Rev. James Arden Sadler, Jr., was licensed to preach by the Ogden Church, Yazoo Association, July 10. He plans to enter Mississippi College in September. Rev. H. E. Inman is the pastor.

 MISS PAT HINES, Office Secretary

At the beginning of every new year there are many new officers and teachers in the Sunday school. They need help in the matter of what they are to do in these new places of service.

Therefore, there should be an emphasis on the administrative side of the work at the beginning of the year. This can be done both from the angle of the department books and also from that of the general administration point.

The book, "A Church Using Its Sunday School," is a good one for all the workers to study. It is helpful in giving to all the people a good view of the Sunday school as a whole, which we all need.

So, a study of this good book will help your school be a better one. Try it.

OBSERVE PREPARATION WEEK

September 18-25, 1955

The church that plans ahead leads the way. What is your church planning to accomplish next year? One pastor, together with his church leaders, determined last year that their church would baptize at least one hundred people. With two months to go in this associational year, they have baptized more than one hundred people. Throughout the entire year this major concern of evangelism has moved the people to increase the Sunday School enrollment, improve the Bible-teaching ministry, step up the visitation program, and multiply personal soul-winning work—and God has richly blessed every effort. It will be the same in your church with regard to every objective that you definitely put into your program of work.

Next year the Sunday school program is built around the scriptural injunction in Deuteronomy 31:12, "Gather the people . . . men . . . women . . .

children," with the aim "Every Family in Sunday School" and the theme "Bible Study for Every Member of the Family." The impact of this program can make itself felt in every church of our Convention if thorough preparation is made for it during Preparation Week, September 18-25. Begin now making necessary plans to strengthen your ministry to adults, particularly to reach more adult men next year. Expand your ministry to the young people of your community, making ample provisions for married young people and for single young people in departments and classes. Go after the babies in the community in a concerted drive, by greatly expanding the Cradle Roll ministry and making adequate provisions in the Nurseries for these babies. Make specific plans for one or more branch schools to expand further the ministry of your Bible-teaching program. Launch these plans during Preparation Week.

The book, A Church Using Its Sunday School, is suggested as a basis for the training of your Sunday School workers during Preparation Week. Work into your discussion the goals and suggested plans that you will find in the planning booklet, "Every Family in Sunday School."

The great spiritual tragedy of the day is that the people are scattered. God commands us to gather the people. When Jesus saw the multitudes that were scattered as sheep without a shepherd, he was moved with compassion. Such a compassion in our hearts today will move our churches to take the practical steps necessary to gather the people and then teach them and win them.

Rev. E. D. Estes, pastor of the First Church, d'Iberville, reports an error in the church name in the list of W. M. U. figures that were published on page 9 of the August 4 issue. He says that the name is First Church, d'Iberville and not d'Iberville.

Among recent visitors in the Baptist Building were: Eva Davis, Joyce Harvey, Carolyn Bourn, Joe Harvey, Calvin Cavis, Dennie Thurman, Christa Ann Thurman, Fannie Lee Atwood, Nell Thurman, Charles Stamps, Cecil Ward, Gloria Jean Bourne, Kenneth Ward, Donald Bourn, Peggie Thurman, May Stamps, Jimmy Harvey, Paul Daniels, all of Arm.

Because of health reasons, Miss Wilkes has resigned her position. We want to thank her through this medium as we have in other ways, for the very wonderful work she did at Blue Mountain, and wish her God's best blessings for the future.

Succeeding Miss Wilkes on September 1st will be Miss Imogene Polley, of Hodgenville, Ky., a graduate of Georgetown College, a recent graduate of Carver School of Missions, and formerly Associate to Mr. J.

Chester Durham, BSU Secretary for Kentucky. Most heartily we welcome Miss Polley to Mississippi and to our Student Work.

PRE-SCHOOL RETREAT SUCCESS

Sixty-four registered for and no doubt twenty or more others attended the recent State Pre-School Retreat at Camp Garaywa.

We believe that all in all the consensus among our veteran student leaders was that this year's meeting was not only the best attended but the most, effective we have ever had. We're deeply grateful for God's blessings and leadership in it.

We appreciate the ideas and challenges brought to the group by our four visiting leaders, viz., Pastor Carl Duck, of Batesville; Dr. Wm. Hall Preston, Nashville, Tenn.; Miss Frenchie Bramwell, of Lamar Tech, Beaumont, Texas, and Mr. Sam Sanford, Jr., of Louisiana Tech, Ruston.

In addition, the Local BSU Directors, Faculty Advisors, Pastors and students who were present made many lasting contributions to the life and work of each one present.

Once again, the importance and urgency of students' spiritual needs were impressed upon us. We believe all of us who attended are better fitted to serve Christ in the task which God has given to each of us.

Here's how to adjust your church to fit the congregation . . .

Ingenious "Modernfolds" enable the church to expand its space to the size of the congregation. Balconies and alcoves are easily shut off when not in use saving on heat and light. Large rooms are easily divided into smaller rooms for class use. Call or write for information on "Modernfolds" and how they can serve the needs of your church.

Silver City Church Has Revival

Silver City Church held its annual revival August 7-13. There were eight additions, three by profession of faith, and thirty rededications. An old-fashioned service was held Saturday night. Oil lamps lighted the building, and members dressed in bonnets and overalls, etc. Rev. Harold Savell of Lynn was the evangelist, and Rev. Hugh Martin, pastor of Bethel Church in Winston County, led the singing.

Sunday School teachers of young people will greatly benefit from the book by W. L. House, professor at Southwestern Seminary, entitled GUIDING YOUNG PEOPLE IN BIBLE STUDY. Written for study course use and also for individual study, the book is bound in an attractive and durable blue cover. Order from the Baptist Book Store or from the Convention Press, Nashville. Price 60 cents.

Rev. Charlie Warren is the Silver City pastor.

Bethlehem Dedicates Educational Unit

Bethlehem Church of Jones County had a dedication service last Sunday during the morning worship hour for its new educational building recently completed.

A special program was planned with the Rev. C. J. Rushing, Associational Missionary, bringing the dedicatory sermon. The sermon was very inspiring and appropriate as he closed with the laws of Sunday School growth as discovered by Southern Baptists.

After the sermon in the auditorium, the people assembled in the educational building where the Building Committee was introduced. This committee was composed of Dewey Warren, chairman; Jim Richards, Eric Clark, Tommy Bryan, E. L. Loner, and Julius Strickland. The Scripture and Dedicatory Prayer were given by Leonard Melvin, Jr.

The brick-veneer structure provides 26 class rooms, 4 assembly rooms plus a Beginners department, an R.A. room and pastor's study. It measures 82' x 55' and has a floor space of 8,400 square feet.
